

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare, inherited, epidermolysis bullosa simplex characterized by neonatal or infantile onset of generalized blistering with mottled or reticulate brown pigmentation developing later. Blistering is often accompanied by mild nail dystrophy and focal palmoplantar keratoderma, and rarely by milia and mostly affects the limbs and trunk.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

EBS with mottled pigmentation

EBS-MP

EBS with mottled pigmentation

EBS-MP

Kod ORPHA

79397

Kod OMIM

131960

Kod ICD10

Q81.0

Kod ICD11

EC30

*Źródło

orphanet