

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare acquired form of renal tubular dysgenesis that develops in donor fetuses due to the shunting of blood flow to the kidney of the recipient and characterized by absent or poorly developed proximal tubules, persistent oligohydramnios and consequently the Potter sequence (facial dysmorphism with large and flat low-set ears, lung hypoplasia, arthrogyposis and limb positioning defects).

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Podtyp etiologiczny

Kod ORPHA

97367

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

Q63.8

Kod ICD11

LB30.3

*Źródło

orphanet