

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare, congenital limb malformation characterized by shortening (hypoplasia or aplasia) of the middle phalanges of the index finger and, sometimes, of the fifth finger. On radiographs, the middle phalanx of the index fingers often appear triangular and in severely affected cases, the index finger is curved radially. The lower limb phenotype is generally milder.

Dane

Klasyfikacja	Synonimy
Zespół wad wrodzonych	Brachydactyly, Mohr-Wriedt type Brachydaktylia, Mohra i Wriedta

Kod ORPHA	Kod OMIM	Kod ICD10
93396	112600	Q73.8

Kod ICD11
LD26.1

*Źródło

orphanet