

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare neural tube closure defect characterized by protrusion of the spinal cord and meninges from the spinal column into a fluid-filled sac at the location of the defect. Clinical signs are variable, depending on location and severity of the lesion, but may include bladder and bowel dysfunction, hydrocephalus, and/or partial or complete paralysis of the lower limbs, among others.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Wada morfologiczna

Synonimy

MMC

Myelomeningocele

Kod ORPHA

93969

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

Q05.6

Kod ICD11

LA02.1

*Źródło

orphanet