

Opis choroby ***

Definicja

Neovascular glaucoma is the most common type of secondary glaucoma, usually caused by diabetic retinopathy, central retinal vein occlusion and carotid artery obstruction but sometimes by trauma, uveitis or ocular tumors, and characterized by severe eye pain, synechial angle glaucoma, high intraocular pressure and leading to loss of vision.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Szczególna sytuacja w chorobie lub zespole

Kod ORPHA

94058

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

H40.5

Kod ICD11

9C61.32

---

*Źródło

orphanet