

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Subaortic course of innominate vein is a rare congenital anomaly of the great veins characterized by an anomalous course of the left brachiocephalic vein, passing from left to right below the aortic arch and entering the superior vena cava below the orifice of the azygos vein. Patients are frequently asymptomatic and diagnosed incidentally on imaging studies. Other cardiac malformations may be associated.

Dane

Klasyfikacja	Synonimy
Wada morfologiczna	Subaortic course of brachiocephalic vein Podaortalny przebieg żyły ramiennie-głowowej

Kod ORPHA	Kod OMIM	Kod ICD10
99113	-	Q26.8

Kod ICD11
-

*Źródło

orphanet