

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Landau-Kleffner syndrome (LKS) is an age-related epileptic encephalopathy where developmental regression occurs mainly in the language domain and the electroencephalographic (EEG) abnormalities are mainly localized around the temporal-parietal regions. The term acquired epileptic aphasia describes the main features of this condition.

Dane

Klasyfikacja	Synonimy
Choroba	Acquired epileptic aphasia
	LKS
	Nabyta afazja padaczkowa
	LKS
Kod ORPHA	Kod OMIM	Kod ICD10
98818	245570	F80.3
Kod ICD11
8A62.2

*Źródło

orphanet