

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare primary torsion dystonia characterized by focal or segmental dystonia with onset either in the cranial-cervical region or in the upper limbs. Age of onset varies between 5 years and adulthood, with a mean age of onset of 16 years. Clinical manifestations are generally mild and slowly progressive.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

DYT13

Primary dystonia with mixed phenotype

Primary torsion dystonia with predominant craniocervical or upper limb onset

DYT13

Primary dystonia with mixed phenotype

Primary torsion dystonia with predominant craniocervical or upper limb onset

Kod ORPHA

98807

Kod OMIM

607671

Kod ICD10

G24.1

Kod ICD11

8A02.0Y

*Źródło

orphanet