

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare soft tissue tumor characterized by a benign space occupying lesion in neonates, most typically located on the gingival mucosa overlying the anterior alveolar ridge of the maxilla near the canine, although the mandibular region may also be involved. Females are much more frequently affected than males. The tumor mostly presents as a single lesion, potentially interfering with feeding and respiration. Metastasis, malignant transformation, or recurrence after excision have not been reported.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Congenital gingival cell tumor
Wrodzony guz z komórek ziarnistych
Wrodzony ziarniniak dziąsłowy
Congenital granular cell tumor
Neumann tumor

Kod ORPHA

157826

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

K06.8

Kod ICD11

KC23

*Źródło

orphanet