

Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare, genetic intestinal disease characterized by the presence of multiple (usually large) hyperplastic/serrated colorectal polyps, usually with a pancolononic distribution. Histology reveals hyperplastic polyps, sessile serrated adenomas (most common), traditional serrated adenomas or mixed polyps. It is associated with an increased personal and familial (first-degree relatives) risk of colorectal cancer.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Choroba

Synonimy

Hyperplastic polyposis syndrome

Polipowatość ząbkowana

Kod ORPHA

157798

Kod OMIM

617108

Kod ICD10

D12.6

Kod ICD11

-

*Źródło

orphanet