Opis choroby *

Definicja

A rare, genetic intestinal disease characterized by the presence of multiple (usually large) hyperplastic/serrated colorectal polyps, usually with a pancolonic distribution. Histology reveals hyperplastic polyps, sessile serrated adenomas (most common), traditional serrated adenomas or mixed polyps. It is associated with an increased personal and familial (first-degree relatives) risk of colorectal cancer.

Dane

Klasyfikacja Synonimy

Choroba Hyperplastic polyposis syndrome

Polipowatość ząbkowana

 Kod ORPHA
 Kod OMIM
 Kod ICD10

 157798
 617108
 D12.6

Kod ICD11

_

*Źródło

orphanet