Opis choroby *

Definicja

A teratologic disorder associated with intrauterine exposure of phenobarbital during the first trimester of pregnancy. Infants are usually asymptomatic but an increased risk of intellectual disability, tetralogy of Fallot, unilateral cleft lip, hypoplasia of the mitral valve and some other mild abnormalities such as hypertelorism, epicanthus, hypoplasia and low insertion of the nose, low insertion of the ears, prognathism, finger hypoplasia, brachydactyly and hypospadias have been reported in rare cases.

Dane

KlasyfikacjaSynonimyZespół wad wrodzonych Prenatalne zatrucie fenobarbitalem

| Kod ORPHA 1919 Kod ICD11 LD2F.0Y | Kod OMIM - | Kod ICD10 Q86.8 |
|---|---------------|---------------------------|
| | | |
| orphanet | | |