

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Dysmorphism-pectus carinatum-joint laxity syndrome is characterised by joint laxity, pectus carinatum and facial dysmorphism (mild frontal bossing, a beaked nose with a low nasal bridge, malar hypoplasia, chubby cheeks, a striking philtrum and arched upper lips). It has been described in two siblings. The mode of transmission is unknown.

Dane

Klasyfikacja

Zespół wad wrodzonych

Synonimy

Guízar Vázquez-Sánchez-Manzano syndrome

Zespół Guizar Vazqueza, Sancheza i Manzano

Kod ORPHA

2104

Kod OMIM

-

Kod ICD10

Q87.8

Kod ICD11

-

---

*Źródło

orphanet