

Opis choroby *

Definicja

Dysmorphism-pectus carinatum-joint laxity syndrome is characterised by joint laxity, pectus carinatum and facial dysmorphism (mild frontal bossing, a beaked nose with a low nasal bridge, malar hypoplasia, chubby cheeks, a striking philtrum and arched upper lips). It has been described in two siblings. The mode of transmission is unknown.

Dane

Klasyfikacja	Synonimy
Zespół wad wrodzonych	Guízar Vázquez-Sánchez-Manzano syndrome Zespół Guizar Vazqueza, Sancheza i Manzano

Kod ORPHA	Kod OMIM	Kod ICD10
2104	-	Q87.8

Kod ICD11

-

---

*Źródło

orphanet